

SHEEP SHEET 2000

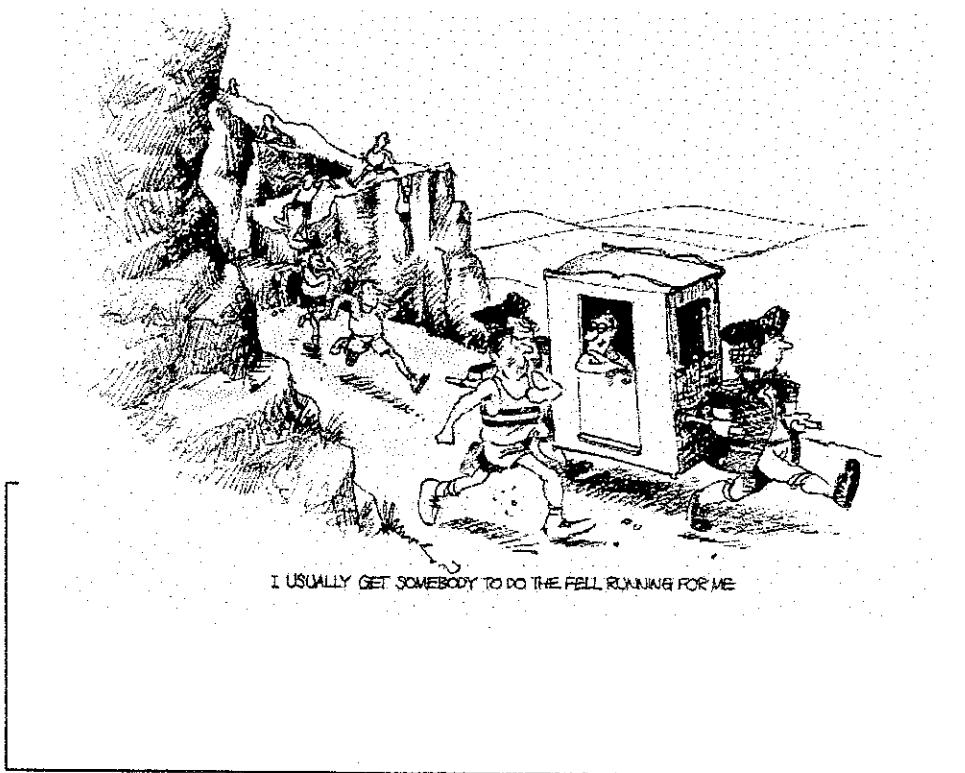

URGENT !!!

YOUR CLUB NEEDS YOU AT TWO VERY IMPORTANT EVENTS ON 5TH FEBRUARY !!

1 CLUB HANDICAP.

2. CLUB DINNER (SEE FORM INSIDE)

THE VENUE IS BOOKED, ALONG WITH THE CEILIDH BAND, SO THIS IS GOING TO COST YOU ALL IF YOU DON'T ATTEND. THE DATE IS SLIGHTLY LATER THAN USUAL WHICH MAY GIVE SOME PEOPLE TIME TO RECOVER FROM CHRISTMAS EXCESS & EXPENSE, AND THE CLUB HANDICAP IS OBVIOUSLY ON THE SAME DATE !!

EDITORS BIT

I have been asked to include a request for the return of all relevant trophies prior to the Club Dinner. (NOW WOULD BE BEST SO THAT THEY CAN BE CHECKED OVER & MAYBE CLEANED). Consider yourselves requested !!!

>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>

Following Petes election to the committee he has very kindly organised the store room at Mytholmroyd, building new shelves & taking an inventory of stock. This has cost a small amount in materials but has resulted in a very big saving on the purchase of some new waterproof paper for printing of race numbers, as there were loads there all the time !! WELL DONE PETE !!

This has been taken as an opportunity to keep things tidier in future & as such race organisers will now have to arrange access to the store via Pete, Rod, Mike or Jez, for all their race requirements. This will probably involve booking out & booking back in again any equipment used.

>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>

Pete has also come up with a social itinerary for the whole year with lots of suggestions for your perusal and hopefully participation. There should be something for everyone !!

>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>

Hopefully there will be a full account of Linda Coopers epic journey in a future edition. If my information is correct she didn't make it to the very top of Mount Mela (Himalyas of course) due to a severe case of altitude sickness. (22,000 ft ?? I'm usually just tucking into my in flight meal at that height !!) I'm sure that T & A picture has you sat on the Cow & Calf rocks at Ilkley ??

>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL OUR READERS. I know you only read it cos it's free!!

KIMM WARS – EPISODE 17

THE MEAN MACHINE

Last year the Roberts-Blunk outfit beat us on the Long Score, but only on a technicality. We decided not to pick up a last 10 pointer on the way to the finish and we ended up with exactly the same points, but Charlotte had a few minutes on us. So this year it was serious.

After queuing for an hour and a half for the ferry across to Dunoon we didn't fancy registering on Friday night, so we did it in the morning. A mile from the car park to registration and back, then an hour to the start. With my perfect sense of timing we made it in half an hour with one minute to spare. We were given a laminated map pre-marked with day 1 controls, including control codes and points values at the start (a brilliant idea), so there was really no need to bother with the control description sheet.

Me: "There are two 35 pointers down there, and three 40s over to the west, so if we pick those up we can get down to the road and straight to the finish if we're short of time."

Paul: "I'm not sure we've time for all that."

Me: "Come on then, let's get going."

Steep climb ahead and several pairs just in front of us.

Paul: "Look out lads I want to take a run at this!"

I've taken a camera along for the first time since my first ever Karrimor, so I get ahead of Paul and take some photos of my older partner dragging his pain-racked body up the hills. Climbing through fight and tramping through bog, it's slow going. I have a look at the control card pinned to my bum bag.

Me: "*!"

Paul: "What's up?"

Me: "I forgot to punch at the third control. I was messing about with the *ing camera!"

Paul: "Rod, we haven't reached the third control yet."

Me: "oh!"

We pick up the two 35s and a 15 pointer (BP, BM, CH).

Paul: "Those two controls down at the end of the loch are compulsory."

Me: "Compulsory crossing point, it says. That must be if you're going down there, but we are anyway."

We get to the west and start climbing to the stream bend (BE). I stop to put my cag on. The control is to the left but Paul follows the crowd to the right and up the hill. By the time I've punched he's disappeared into the mist. I climb hell for leather to catch him. He must be going well. "Paul! PAULL! PAAAWWLLL!!!". No Paul. I reach the col, a 500 ft climb. No Paul. I race back down. "Have you seen a black moustache with a purple Karrimat?" Nobody has. After hovering about the point where I put on my cag I think I imagine someone calling. There's Paul 400m away descending out of the mist. He's been talking to Mandy Goth (Elite Course) up near the col. Fifteen minutes later we're back at the col, together this time. The rain has got into the camera and it's packed up.

A thousand foot, near vertical, climb to DD, summit, 45 points, doesn't do Paul any good, but the next 40 (DE) comes easily and we've got 200 points. There's not really time to pick up the next 45 pointer, but I persuade Paul that it won't cost us 45 minutes and will therefore be worth it. We can then make a beeline for the finish. Paul's looking distinctly uncertain, but is too tired to argue.

We're running (er....shuffling) along this track.

Me: "Paul I've got some bad news. The descent into the next control – it's not a descent, it's a climb." The contour lines look much the same in either direction now.

Paul: "I can't go up there. You go up".

After some discussion we come to a sharp bend in the track.

Me: "Where the *'s this?"

Paul: "You're swearing a lot today, Rod. I'll have to have a word with Maria about it?"

Me: "! We've missed it."

Nether of us fancy going back. We wholeheartedly agree that highly respected mountain marathoners like us could not descend into cheating by just one of us climbing up without a rucsac to punch the control, especially if we were caught at it. Anyway, neither of us wants to be the one, so it's down to the road and off to the finish. We've got 6 minutes to do 8km.

Paul: "This control's compulsory".

Me: "It's not clear on the control description sheet. It says 'compulsory crossing point and control'. It must be the crossing point that's compulsory." I'm definitely in denial about these compulsory controls. We've reached the road. I turn left.

Paul: "Shouldn't we be going right?"

Me: "No, let's take the road. There's no climbing."

Paul is now looking decidedly unhappy, but is subdued.

We've done 3km along road and track.

Paul: (looking at the map) "Let's go right up that track to the last control."

Me: "What last control? The finish is just at the end of here."

Paul: "This last control up the hill is compulsory."

Me: (realisation dawning) "ing hell!"

If all else fails, read the instructions. There are five compulsory controls, of which we have so far got three, all by accident. It's a 500ft climb to the last one, and we've still missed another (where we should have gone right), at which, it turns out later, Irene and Ted are patiently waiting.

Me: "Do you think we'll be disqualified?"

Paul: "With a bit of luck we'll get a lifetime ban."

We trudge up to the last control and arrive at the finish 102 minutes late. 220 points collected, 102 deducted, leaving 118. Charlotte and Inken have 155 points. Charlotte has spoken to the planner and tells us that he is not going to disqualify people because they are complaining that the description sheet is ambiguous. She looks miffed because she has visited all the compulsory ones. She's also run 15km along the lochside road to get north and avoid the western hills. We never even thought of that. Besides, it would have destroyed us.

The Karrimor has gone soft. A low lying, flat campsite, and Portaloo. However, it pours down all night and unusually I am cold with my half length Karrimat. I'm woken by a deafening crack of thunder at 5am. The equipment stands up well and Paul is impressed by my new, larger (heavier) tent. He says it was well worth bringing (I carried it). He isn't impressed when I have trouble fitting it in my rucksac on the second day, and he has to take the inner. He says what I need next is a bigger rucksac.

We're not on the results list for the first day but we are given a control card and allowed to start the second. We've got it sussed this time. Only one compulsory control, the last one by the finish. Almost a straight line route back, but over the tops and plenty of points. We execute it well and jog down to the finish with another 230 points and half an hour to spare. Why can't we put two days like that together?

Postscript

The KIMM website says we're disqualified, though we would have had 348 points. Charlotte and Inken have 330. I ring Paul up.

Me: "We were disqualified."

Paul: "Oh, I didn't know."

Me: "I'm glad we didn't know. It would have taken the edge off the second day."

Paul: "Taken the edge off! We'd have got the bus home!"

We agree that it was a moral victory. Charlotte has only won on a technicality again. It's easy enough to win on technicalities. Anyway, it's not really in the spirit of the thing to run 9 miles along a road.

PPS

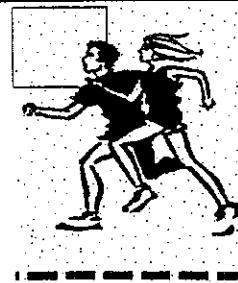

Well done, Charlotte! Shall we make it best of five?

Note

Paul might say he should have more funny lines, but this is my tale.

It was a bitterly cold wind at the start of this race with everyone hiding in their cars until the start of the race. The ground was frozen with icy patches which made for an interesting descent. Steve, Frank and Richard had a good old tussle while Charlotte had a bad run spraining her ankle on the way up but in true CVFR style she finished the race. (But if truth be told it was the thought of the chocolate goodies waiting for her at the finish that kept her going). Well done to everyone and a good turn out for the club. Keep it up.

An excellent turn out for the club for the last race of the century with quite a few suffering from bad colds, chills etc. Don't run with the cold - that's what they say but do we listen. It was a large field which resulted in queuing for the stile which was done in a very orderly fashion with anyone that jumped the queue getting severely BOOED at. The going was very soft on the return as you heading to the finish to a strong bottle of beer and a chocolate bar.

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP SYSTEM 2000

We are continuing the Club Championship system as before and also restarting the Handicap Competition. Here is an explanation of the rules and calculations for those not familiar with it.

The Championships and the Handicap Competition are based on the same set of 21 races – seven each of long, medium and short. The races are chosen each year to give a mix of local and distant, favourites and classics, though the short races are mostly local. The Grand Prix consists of eight local short races, mostly evening races in the first half of the year which overlap with the Championship.

Club Championship

- You need to complete at least ten races to gain as many points as possible.
- Your best three short, three medium, three long, plus your next best race will count for points.
- In the Open and Vets Championships the first Calder Valley runner in each race will score 30 points, the second 29 points and so on. The maximum possible score over ten races is 300 points.
- In the Ladies Championship the first Calder Valley runner in each race will score 10 points, the second 9 points and so on. The maximum possible score over ten races is 100 points.

Handicap Competition

- Everyone is given a handicap based on last year's race results. We should all start the season with an equal chance of winning since the handicap equalises everybody's racing speed. The runner who improves the most during the season should win the Handicap Competition.
- The handicaps will be calculated and allocated by a democratically elected Handicap Subcommittee of the Captain-Statistician Campaign Appeal using a completely open and transparent system. Any queries about allocated handicaps will be subjected to rigorous statistical manipulation and the five economic tests.
- Your handicap will be a number that represents the ratio of your race times compared with the winner's times on average in the previous year. For instance, if the winner's time in a race is 100 minutes, and you would normally expect to take about 140 minutes, your handicap should be about 1.4. Bear in mind that your expectation may vary, say between short and long races.
- For each race your actual time will be divided by your handicap. This should give you a handicap time near to the winner's time (better, if you've done well).
- The Calder Valley runner with the shortest handicap time will score 30 points, the next one 29 points, and so on. The best three short, medium and long results, plus the next best result will count, as for the championship.

Grand Prix

The Grand Prix is decided on the same points system as the Championship (30, 29, etc.) and the best six out of eight results will count. You must complete at least six races to get the best score you can.

Bingley Harriers had double misfortune this year following their disastrous leg 6 last year. After leading by 2 min 43 sec at the end of leg 2, their leg 3 pairing were not ready for the change over and lost over 3 minutes. They regained first place on leg 4 from Pudsey & Bramley and maintained it on leg 5 to lead by 3 min 40 sec. Unfortunately, with the withdrawal of John Taylor through injury, the weakened leg 6 pair could not hold off Pudsey & Bramley's country internationals and were beaten into second place. The controversy did not end there, the Bingley pairing objected to Pudsey & Bramley taking the wrong route between Bailiff Bridge and Brighouse. Pudsey admitted going wrong but ended up running through brambles and negotiating barbed wire fences. After discussions with both team captains we let the result stand. All credit must go to Salford Harriers for an excellent 3rd place on their first outing, though last years winners Clayton-le Moors were close to catching them if it had not been for a botched change over at Shelf.

Dark Peak Ladies had their second win in three years in a close fought battle. Keighley & Craven led for the first two legs but an outstanding run by Dark Peak on leg 3 pushed them into 2nd place. After leg 4, Dark Peak had only a 10 second lead over Clayton-Le-Moors with Bingley 3rd and the run of the day by the Pudsey & Bramley pair with 23rd leg place overall, now in 4th. Cut off time now spoilt the closeness of the true race. Dark Peak consolidated their lead on leg 5 and although Clayton-Le-Moors closed the gap on leg 6, they had to settle for second place, with Bingley a consistent third.

Kendal AC Vets also had their second win in three years; after a mediocre start they gained the lead on leg 2 and held on till the finish, being pushed all the way by Clayton-Le-Moors in the closest fought category of the day.

Todmorden Harriers took the decision to forgo their A team for a mixed team and went on to win in style with 18th place overall. With 3 pairs of men and 3 pairs of women they were within the rules, unlike many of the initially declared mixed teams.

Abbey Runners A on leg 1 have been penalised by 30 minutes for leaving their partner and failing to stop at the holding marshals when requested, his partner never appeared at the finish. This is a team event run in pairs and you must finish together or have an extremely good reason for not doing so, your partner being slow is not a reason.

Keighley & Craven A and Dewsbury Runners were both reported for short cutting on leg 2, a 1 minute penalty has been awarded against each team.

Harrogate A were caught finishing leg 6 short of kit and have been penalised by 5 minutes.

These are only the ones who were positively identified. many other teams deviated from the route whether on purpose or accidentally and no doubt several people did not carry full kit.

12 teams left early for leg 2 at a cut off time of 1.45.00

27 teams left early for leg 3 at a cut off time of 3.00.00

9 teams left early for leg 4 at a cut off time of 4.00.00

52 teams left early for leg 5 at a cut off time of 5.00.00

58 teams left early for leg 6 at a cut off time of 6.00.00

Times have been adjusted accordingly.

EPOC Mix had no runners on leg 1 and have been given the slowest time. Abbey Runners B were not recorded finishing leg 3 and were not recorded leaving for leg 4 at the cut off time but they finished leg 4 last, strange!! Rossendale Z were not recorded through leg 5 and have been given an approximate time.

Mixed teams shown ran with a minimum of 6 females, all females are marked with an 'L' after their name.

Six teams failed to turn up this year. Our limit for the event of 100 teams was again exceeded and two teams were turned away. Entries are taken on a first come basis which means something in writing and a cheque for the full amount early to avoid disappointment, forms will be sent to all this year's teams around early October.

Leg 6 had the most problems this year with an extremely annoyed farmer due to runners cutting across the fields instead of running around, with even one runner having the cheek to get a drink from a tap in the farm yard. The earlier mentioned problem between Bailiff Bridge and Brighouse is an annual one and will be marshalled next year along with the farm. Some complaints come in from spectators around the course regarding short cuts, if anyone would like to marshal a particular point on the route please let us know.

A negative number is the time in minutes and seconds lost for your team. A positive number is the time gained for your team. This is based on an average of the percentage each leg time is of the total time for each team.

Sorry, teams taking more than 9 hours 5 mins are not calculated.

THE TOUR OF PENDLE

This year the weather was ideal, with no wind dry and cool with spectacular views across Lancashire. The race started with the usual 100meter sprint and too fast for me to hang on. On my arrival at checkpoint 5, to my surprise, I caught Duncan. He stated that he just wanted to get round in under 3 hours. Which he accomplished.

It was a poor turnout this year with only 115 starters, 64 of which were vets. I now look forward to next years event with hopefully a few more club members
